In December 2008, while a senior in high school, Josh Ose made the decision to join the Marine Corps. At that time he thought of his future and set goals for himself to accomplish. Those goals were to join the Marines, complete boot camp, defend our country in the ongoing war, and return home a Hero. Josh later graduated from Hernando High School in May of 2009. On August 10, 2009, he left for boot camp and began the completion of the first of his four goals he had set for himself.

The second goal was accomplished when he completed 3 months of intense training during Marine boot camp at Parris Island, SC. On September 3, 2010, Josh deployed to Afghanistan serving alongside seventeen fellow Marines and engaged in battle. This marked the completion of his third goal he set for himself. On September 20, 2010, Josh was killed in action while defending our country. When he returned home on September 27, he became a Hero to us all. His life and goals were then complete.
